

Munir Ahmad S/O Ali Muhammad

+92-302-8566400 / munir.ahmaad@live.com

Core Competencies

- Special Projects Planning → Budgeting → Layout designing for Special project
- Forecasting and reporting → Projects Costing (Tendering) → Administration
- Installation, commissioning & operation of chemical Plants
- Human Resource Development → Procurement for Special projects (National & International)

Experience Summary

PAEC (Pakistan Atomic Energy Commission)

Jan 1977 – Feb 2018 (41 Years)

Employment History

PAEC (Pakistan Atomic Energy Commission)

Director General NCC- Nilore, Islamabad

Retired as Director General from PAEC, served for 41 Years in different key positions at two major National importance classified projects.

- Planning & designing of nuclear grade thick walled barite concrete buildings required for the special nature projects.
- Planning, designing, commissioning & operation of special nature chemical plants.
- Developed & trained technical man power for special classified projects.
- Played an active coordination role in the civil construction of these special projects buildings, constructed through well reputed construction companies like NCL & Continental (Overseas) construction services.
- Participated & presented Pakistan in various International workshops, technical meetings & conferences on Special nature classified scientific assignments in different Countries.

Education

University of Engineering & Technology, Lahore, Pakistan

Bachelors of Sciences in Chemical Engineering (Batch-71UET)

1976

National Award

In recognition to the contribution in National Importance Projects, the Government of Pakistan awarded Sitara-i-Imtiaz (SI) in year 2016